

Making Inferences about Character Traits

2.9b: students will make inferences about characters in fiction text by describing the character's traits using textual evidence.

Character Traits

adjectives that describe a character's personality shown through their words and actions

